Asian markets rise again on Tuesday, though markets here are closed as a public holiday. Mumbai, India: Asian stocks rose on Tuesday, with the Nifty 50 on track for its best week of 2017, even as investors from the United States and mainland Europe retreated from riskier assets. A rise in Chinese and Indian currency and easing tensions in North Korea also supported regional markets after volatile trading last week. The US dollar slumped after Republican Donald Trump won the presidential election in November,
